Mahaprabhu Shri Jagannath

Shri Jagannath Mahaprabhu is revered as Lord Vishnu or His avatar as Krishna in India. He is worshipped as part of a Triad along with His brother Shri Balabhadra and sister Devi Subhadra along with Shri Sudarshana Chakra as Chaturdha Moorthy.

Shri Jagannath Mandir, Thyagraj Nagar, New Delhi

The Mandir is dedicated to Shri Jagannath Mahaprabhu and is being managed by a society called Shri Jagannath Mandir and Odisha Arts & Cultural Centre, Delhi (Regd.) since 1968. The society is organizing its 57th Rath Yatra of Mahaprabhu Jagannath this year on 7th July 2024 in Thyagraj Nagar New Delhi.

Rath Yatra

Rath Yatra, i.e. Car festival which is held annually, is the celebration of journey of Mahaprabhu on the chariot along with His elder brother Prabhu Balabhadra and sister Devi Subhadra from Shri Mandir, his Abode to Shri Gundicha Mandir, His Aunt's residence, involving an annual procession (Journey) of these Deities.

This legendary procession moves in three massive wooden chariots drawn by the devotees.

SAMARPANA

Shri Jagannath Mandir and Odisha Arts & Cultural Centre, Delhi is organizing the 57th Rath Yatra of Mahaprabhu Jagannath this year in accordance with the rituals and ceremonies as followed in Shri Mandir, Puri. The iconic procession of Mahaprabhu Jagannath also evinces an innate cultural backdrop of India and the way Mahaprabhu Jagannath's Glory is found as a signature element in all religious proceedings there in Puri.

This Rath Yatra depicts Indian culture and the profound way in which it extols Mahaprabhu Jagannath's magnificence, besides underscoring the earnest desire among the devotees to pull the Mahaprabhus' Chariot in unison with the priests. This practice is considered supremely pious and is believed to bring good luck and blessings upon all the participants.

Anna prasad

The centre point of all deliberations in Mahaprabhu Jagannath Mandir is the unfailing practice of offering a daily (twice) set of five food items offerings (Bhoga) to Mahaprabhu Jagannath.

Folklore narrates that Mahaprabhu Jagannath goes for His morning walk at Badri Dham, puts on His clothes and ornaments at Dwaraka Dham, takes His lunch at Puri Dham and goes to bed at Rameswar Dham. Therefore, the focus is on Puri Dham where Mahaprasad is available in large quantities in different varieties. However, the Prasad offered to Mahaprabhu becomes Mahaprasad only after it has been re-offered to goddess, Devi Bimala.

Chappan Bhog at Shri Jagannath Mandir Thyagraj Nagar

Chappan Bhog (56 Items) is offered to Mohaprabhu Jagannath on the occasion of Snana Purnima (the holly bath of Deities) After this holly bath the Deities fall sick and go to quarantine (Anasara) for 14 days. Chappan Bhog is also offered to Mohaprabhu Jagannath on different occasions.

Mahaprabhu Shri Jagannath Mandir Society, Delhi

Mahaprabhu Shri Jagannath Mandir in New Delhi underscores a significant transition of aspirations of the common masses and the way they anticipate The Supreme Power to govern their lives.

This Mandir is being proficiently managed by a fifty- six year old charitable society called Shri Jagannath Mandir and Odisha Arts & Cultural Centre, Delhi that is registered under the Society of Registration Act, 1860. Through this benevolent society, they have philanthropically envisaged to propagate Mahaprabhu Jagannath's glory in the National Capital.
